MAIL SERVICE TO BE ENLARGED IN CITY

Extension of city free delivery mail service was announced here Thursday by J. R. Hays, Postmaster.

The improved and extended service will depend on getting houses correctly numbered on the streets to be included in the several areas to be brought under present routes.

The improved service will create another route, possibly an auxiliary and provide employment for a part time carrier, possibly a full time as the demand grows.

It is not the duty of the postal service to number homes and business houses. That is essentially a function of the city, or those who own the homes and buildings. If they want the benefit of extended city delivery service they should take steps at once to correctly number their homes and to get their street names correctly.

Naming, marking streets and numbering homes is a long neglected duty of the city government. But the city has done so little in the past quarter century, one thing more or less would make no difference in the apparently hopeless situaton.

City mail delivery cannot be made until homes are numbered because mail must be directed to proper addresses.

The new mail service is ready now or could be ready within the space of a few days if this work were done. Mr. Hays says his office is prepared to inspect the route extensions anytime.

Areas singled out at this time for extended free delivery mail service are in the Green addition, the area around the old Lawless Green athletic field, north on Highway 77 and on the old Maysfield Road where many new homes have been built. These homes are not numbered and therefore are not eligible for free mail delivery.

It was expected that the city council would take steps at once to co-opearate in this matter although streets are hard to find in some of the wilderness areas, and too through the years people have built houses in them or have fenced them up as they saw fit.

L. B. Blake, 32 year old war veteran is in St. Edwards Hospital, in a critical condition with a bullet wound in his stomach.

According to information given by officers Blake was said to be preparing to leave the home after a quarrel with his wife. Blake, they said had been drinking. He is said to have told Mrs. Blake that he was leaving and went to his room to pack some clothing. Mrs. Blake left the house for a few minutes. Members of the family heard a shot and rushed in to find Blake wounded in the stomach. He had used a .22 callibre rifle.

It was said here Thursday morning that he has only a slight chance to recover. He is the father of two children, was reared in Cameron.

The shooting occured around 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Bills Introduced To Adjust Inequalities In Cotton Acreage

Two bills seeking to adjust alleged inequalities in cotton acreage allotments were introduced in the house today.

One, by Rep. Poage (D-Tex), would affect only Texas. The other by Rep. Cooley (D-NC), would set a minimum under which individual farmers' acreage could not be cut.

Rep. Poage's bill provides that growers in states producing in excess of 2,500,000 bales of cotton in 1948 shall be given credit for lands planted in such crops as grain sorghums, peanuts and flax the same as if these lands were planted in cotton.

"The effect of the bill would be to cause a redistribution of Texas' acreage allotment among the counties within the state," Poage said. He explained that the measure affects only Texas and does not change the allotments of other states.

Cooley's bill was approved last month by a special cotton sub-committee after widespread protests over the acreage cuts. Some farmers said that their acreage was reduced as much as 50 to 75 per cent. The national acreage reduction under the new allotment is about 23 per cent.

This bill provides that no cotton acreage allotment under the new law shall be less than the larger of (1) 70 per cent of the average acreage actually planted to cotton on the farm in 1946, 1947 and 1948, or (2) 50 percent of the highest acreage planted to cotton in any of the three years.

Two other Texas Democrats offered other solutions. They were Reps. Bentsen and Mahon. Their districts included counties which fared well under the present method of allocating the acreage quotas on the basis of 95 per cent of the land actually planted in cotton in 1948.

BILLS INTRODUCED—

"I think there should be a redistribution of the national quota among the states," said Bensen. "Texas did not get its just proportion, compared with some of the Southern states."

Mahon said only about five out of 25 counties in his West Texas district were adversely affected by the new law.

He suggested that the "inequities in these counties can be removed" by allowing farmers who feel they did not receive large enough quotas to plant land equal to the unused portion of other individual allotments within their counties.

There has been little criticism of the total Texas allotments. Some farmers complain, however, that their own cotton allotments do not take into account land planted to other crops during the war to meet special shortages during that period.

George Odie Mills Found Not Guilty By Jury On Charge Of Drunk Driving

George Odie Mills of Liberty was found not guilty by a jury in District Court here Wednesday on a charge of driving a car while drunk.

Mills was arrested in the summer on the charge and Judge Dan Tyson in county court refused a plea of guilty on the grounds that Mills was a second offender. He had previously paid a fine for driving while intoxicated.

He was indicted by the Grand Jury in September and was released on $750 bond to await trial .

When arraigned Wednesday he entered a plea of not guilty and the jury held him not guilty. The jury was as follows: Frank Winkler, Richard Heine, Jr., R. W. Wells, R. L. Hairston, J. E. Crook, L. A. Petty, Graham Young, Alfred Wohleb, Edward Senkel, W. W. Cryer, R. J. Woodum and J. D. Stephens.

TEXAS LEADS U. S. IN HOLIDAY DEATHS

Tabulations Tuesday showed that Texas violent deaths over the New Year's holiday totaled far more than those of any other state.

From 6 p. m. last Friday until midnight Monday, Texas listed 58 fatalities, 30 of them occuring from traffic accidents. Other than Texas, the highest number of fatalities occurred in Illinois, which had 28, 18 of them in traffic. New York followed with 27 deaths, 16 in traffic.

For the period starting at 6 a. m. Friday and ending at midnight Monday, the Texas total was 69 violent deaths, including suicides, which were not included in tabulations by other states. These deaths included 34 in traffic, 11 by fires and 24 from miscellaneous causes.

BRANNON PLAN GETS CALL IN CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2—The Administration was believed set to give the controversial Brannan farm plan another whirl during today's new session of Congress—probably with the same negative results.

Despite thumping setbacks in both the House and Senate last year, Charles F. Brannan has spent a good part of the Summer and Fall drumming up support for it among farmers and labor groups.

Even his top advisers concede there is no chance the program will be written into law this year. Brannan realizes the voters will have to be "sold" on the idea over a period of time.

His real aim is to build the program into the major farm issue in the 1950 Congressional campaigns. He is confident that once the voters understand it, they will send pro-plan Democratic Representatives and Senators to Washington next year.

President Truman has not backed down one inch in his support of Brannan.

Congressional Republicans say they would welcome a new test. Senator Milton R. Young, of North Dakota, who is running for re-election, said recently that any new attempt to pass the plan would split the Democrats and swing farm votes to the GOP.

Under the plan, farmers would sell perishables such as meat, milk and eggs for the going market price. Then, if their income fell below a predetermined "fair" level, the Government would mail them checks for the difference.

The Government now supports the price of such perishables by buying them and removing them from the market. That tends to keep food prices relatively high.

Brannan and his aides see the plan as a two-edged political sword. It should appeal to the farmers because it offers a generally high level of farm income, they say, while the lure of lower food prices should appeal to big city voters.

On the other hand, the Republicans are sure they can convince farmers the plan would lead to rigid Federal controls over farm economy.

They also argue that the taxpayers foot the bill for price support, whether in the form of direct subsidies or price support loans and purchase agreements. The Brannan plan, they say, has the added disadvantage of costing more to administer.

WE MAKE ROAD PROGRESS

FORMOSA'S FALL EXPECTED SOON

CITY DEMO PRIMARY CALLED

TWO MAJOR HIGHWAYS ASSURED IN NEW YEAR

1950 was a good year for highway and road building in Milam county, in fact it brought major developments thanks to the Commissioners Court, headed by Judge Dan Tyson.

Members of the court who took part in the representations to the Highway Department were W. W. Markham of Cameron, C. S. Raney, of Buckholts, Byron Neal of Rockdale and T. F. Locklin of Thorndale. Previously designated roads from Rockdale to Tracy and from Thorndale to San Gabriel were well advanced in construction together with all bridges.

A new designation was made from Tracy to Ad Hall meaning an extension in a well planned integrated system of Farm to Market roads.

This was followed by a designation from Ben Arnold east to the Jones Prairie road. Many hope that 1951 will bring two other designations in this area, one from Yarrellton to Buckholts and one from Marak to Ad Hall and to Yarrellton to connect with Highway 36 and 190 and with the Splawn to Yarrellton farm to market road.

The county made the larger progress in highways. The court not only obtained right of way on Highway 77 from Burlington to the Falls county line but saw construction of concrete causeways over Elm and Walkers Creeks in preparation for the complete rebuilding of the highway from Cameron to near Rosebud.

Another major concession came when the Highway Department set up tentative plans for the rebuilding of Highway 36 from Cameron to the Bell county line through Buckholts.

Right of way surveys and required acreage has not as yet been called for. In this need the city of Cameron will have to furnish right of way in a new survey for 36 and 190 through the city.

Recently Commissioner R. J. Potts of the Highway Department, made a personal inspection of Highway 77 from Waco his old home through Milam county. On direct question by Judge Dan Tyson the Commissioner said that he felt the Highway Department would not delay rebuilding 77 since the Milam county court had met every demand for right of ways.

In connection with 77 it is important to note that the city of Cameron can get a full width paved street from the Santa Fe underpass to the city limits east by building curbing and gutters on 77. This route is also the route of 36 and the city of Cameron is going to get around 50 blocks of paving at no cost except curbing and should get itself in position to co-operate both as to the right of way and finances to build.

On the whole 1949 was the greatest year of progress since Senator Kyle Vick got the half million dollar cause way across Little River.

Judge Dan Tyson and members of the Commissioners Court were responsible for a major share of this progress.

The appointment of A. F. Mitchell of Corsicana, former engineer in Milam county, to the Highway Commssion, was regarded here as a break for the county. Mr. Mitchell has many friendly interests in this county and recognizes the need for road and highway construction through the area. He has been most considerate as has the entire commission.

Granting of $16,000 Thursday by the Highway Commission to be supplemented by $58,000 already available for Road District 2 fattens the road picture considerably for 1949.

URGENT PLEAS FOR AID TO FORMOSA

The State department disclosed belatedly today that the Chinese nationalists have put the isseue of saving Formosa directly up to the administration with an urgent new plea for American aid.

Ambassador Wellington Koo submitted the plea Dec. 23. It came to light amid an increasing flurry of controversy in the new congress over what course the United States should follow toward China.

Koo asked in a formal memorandum for military support, the unfreezing of nearly $100,000,000 once earmarked for China and the dispatch of military, political, and economic advisors to help save Formosa from conquest by the Chinese communists.

The answer may already have been decided upon, at least in part, at last week's meeting of President Truman with the national security council. This was followed by authoritative reports that Mr. Truman ruled out the idea of direct military assistance. The administration stand on economic aid and the dispatch of advisers has not been spelled out.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is trying to turn Formosa off the Chinese coast, into a stronghold against his communist foes. An Associated Press dispatch today from Taipeh, Formosa, said informed sources there were confident U. S. aid will come if the nationalists can hold out another six to eight weeks.

The dispatch said the new Formosa governor, K. C. Wu, had scored some successes in an effort to solve political and economic problems, but still faced other problems including:

1. Smuggling by the nationalist army.

2. Corruption among certain army units, in which non-existent soldiers are carried on the rolls to enrich high officers.

Some members of congress advised caution in aiding the defense of Formosa, lest it lead to a world war. But others urged that the United States act quickly to save the island as proposed by former President Hoover and Senator Taft (R-Ohio).

Wife Says Husband Accidentally Shot

Mrs. L .B. Blake of Milano, wife of L. B. Blake who was shot in the stomach with a small callibre rifle Tuesday evening at the Charles Morgan home, has asked a correction on the published story of the shooting.

Mrs. Blake said this newspaper was given the wrong information, that her husband was accidentally shot as he attempted to enter his car which was parked at the Morgan residence. He had not been drinking, she said.

Mrs. Blake asked that a correction be made on the time of the shooting which she says was at 6:30 p. m. instead of 8:30 p. m. Her husband, in St. Edwards Hospital, she says is 34 years old instead of 32 years old, as published.

"My husband was not in the house when he was wounded. He was getting into the car and the shot was accidental."

Officers gave the report to this newspaper. Mr. Blake, according to Mrs. Blake is improving.

JUDGE TYSON REPORTS SUCCESS AT AUSTIN

Judge Dan Tyson announced Saturday morning that the Texas Highway Commission had granted request of the Commissioners Court for $16,000 to supplement $48,713 already available here for a road to be built in District No. 2.

Judge Tyson was pleased to have a visit here Friday night from A. F. Mitchell of Corsicana, member of the Highway Commission. He informed Judge Tyson that the Commission had agreed to the request for the funds and they will be made available at once.

Judge Tyson and Commissioners W. W. Markham and T. F. Locklin of Thorndale were in Austin Thursday with a number of local citizens from the Salem community to ask for the money.

The funds will be used in Road District No. 2 as has already been explained. This improvement is slated for the Commissioner Precinct of Mr. Markham.

Old Pair of Specks Found At Maysfield: Are On Display Here

A pair of old style steel rim glasses, commonly called specks like grandma used to wear, were found last week near Maysfield by Will Jekel who brought them to The Herald for display.

They will be ready for inspection Tuesday. The glasses are small, highly magnifying and appear to have been worn by a child. They were found in a case. With Mr. Jekel at the time was James Cryer. Both are employed by Commissioner Markham and they were doing some work on a truck when Mr. Jekel found the glasses.

The glasses no doubt are a hundred years old. They can be seen only in museums and occasionally in the older homes of the country.

GAUSE IS THANKFUL

Newspapers Praised For Support Of Milk Bowl Game Dec. 10

It may be only "a wide bend in the road" to most people, but Gause, the tiny hamlet Texas forgot, received a tribute that any city in the state would have welcomed. Ralph Widman, sports director at Radio Station WFAA, in an evening broadcast of December 20, said "A city is not measured by the size of its buildings, but by the quality of its people. The biggest city in the world is Gause, Texas, U. S. A."

In Gause originated this year, the annual Milk Bowl, a bowl game for Pee Wees, sponsored on a permanent basis by the Cameron Chamber of Commerce and promoted officially by Radio Station WFAA.

"Great tribute should also be paid at this time to civic leaders of Cameron," says Eugene C. Weafer, athletic director of Gause.

"Who could see a new day dawning for rural youth in the pioneer efforts with the bowl. Certainly, the bowl has focused attention on the extra-curricular needs—personal, social recreational and athletic—of the pre-high school children.

"The Cameron Herald, Cameron Enterprise, Rockdale Reporter, the Bryan News, Caldwell News, Waco Times-Herald and News-Tribune and the Dallas Morning News, as well as countless other dailies and weeklies throughout the state are to be congratulated on their part in this new venture."

TEMPLE WATER SUPPLY NEEDING PROTECTION

Salt in the water supply for the city of Temple has been prevalent for some time and Wednesday the source of the salt in the Leon River supply was discovered.

A 10 acre salt lake near Eastland county oil fields was disclosed as emptying into Colony Creek a tributary of the Leon River.

Water consumers in Temple have been complaining for some time. It was said by City Attorney Byron Skelton that steps were being taken at once to stop the flow of salt water. Oil Companies have been emptying water through a 4 inch pipe in to the creek on the water shed of the Leon.

The Temple water supply comes from the Leon River and the Leon empties into Little River. Eventually the Cameron water supply will be affected. So far there has been no complaint here.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR CLAY RUCKER SATURDAY

Funeral services for Clay Rucker were to be held from Lights Chapel Baptist Church, 8th and Austin Streets, Cameron, at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, December 31.

Clay Rucker was born in Milam county the son of Jeff and Alabama Aycock Rucker on February 9, 1883 and died on Christmas Day, December 25, 1949.

In early life Clay was considered a good negro boy and grew into manhood with like reputation. He was of, what is often referred to as, old time negro stock. Very un-assuming, humble, polite and above all trust worthy in every respect, making a good citizen. By those who knew him well he was a Christian gentleman, very faithful to his church and was Superintendent of his Sunday School for many years.

He felt a great responsibility for some of his family, therefore never married.

As a boy in his early teens, when the late Dr. Jessie Cass moved from Cameron, to Lawton, Okla., Clay went with him and remained in his service a great number of years. He was so well considered by the family that when Mrs. Cass visited Cameron a few years ago she made it a point to see him. This incident is mentioned for the fact that Clay was somewhat of an obscure type and not widely known, only among his church congregation and a few others and he deserved every consideration shown him.

He was of such character that he had very few employers because he was faithful and continued in each of their service long period of years.

He is survived by four brothers and two sisters. Matt Rucker, Cameron; Jeff Rucker, Moody, Texas; James Lee Rucker, New Brunswick, N. J.; Fred Rucker, Newark, N. J.; Rebecca Rucker, Mrs. Frances White, Cameron, and a number of nephews and neices.

A. N. Green Announces

To the voters of Cameron:

In announcing as candidate for the office of Mayor of Cameron I am not unmindful of the grave responsibilities that go with that office.

If elected it shall be my purpose to discharge that responsibility in the best manner that I know. I shall give my full time and attention to the duties of the office.

I will use every available means to take off the $6.00 tax that was levied on the sewer connections during 1949. If the aldermen refuse to take it off I shall submit it to the vote of the people where it should have gone to make it legal.

The extension of the sewer system is badly needed and if new taxes are really needed for this purpose and the people request it they should be given the privilege to vote on it. Without co-operation there can be no progress.

The unreasonable annual tax on the sewer connection will only serve to prevent its extension, it dissatisfies those who have connections and those who have not are reluctant to assume an $18 annual tax. Under the present administration you pay 75 cents each month for the water to flush the sewer and $9.00 annually to the city, totalling $18.00 for each connection.

During the last quarter century the city's affairs have been administered by men whose private business required most of their time and little progress has been made. Constant attention justifies the assumption that conditions can be improved and this I propose to do.

I shall deeply appreciate your consideration and vote promising in return impartial and courteous service to all.

A. N. GREEN

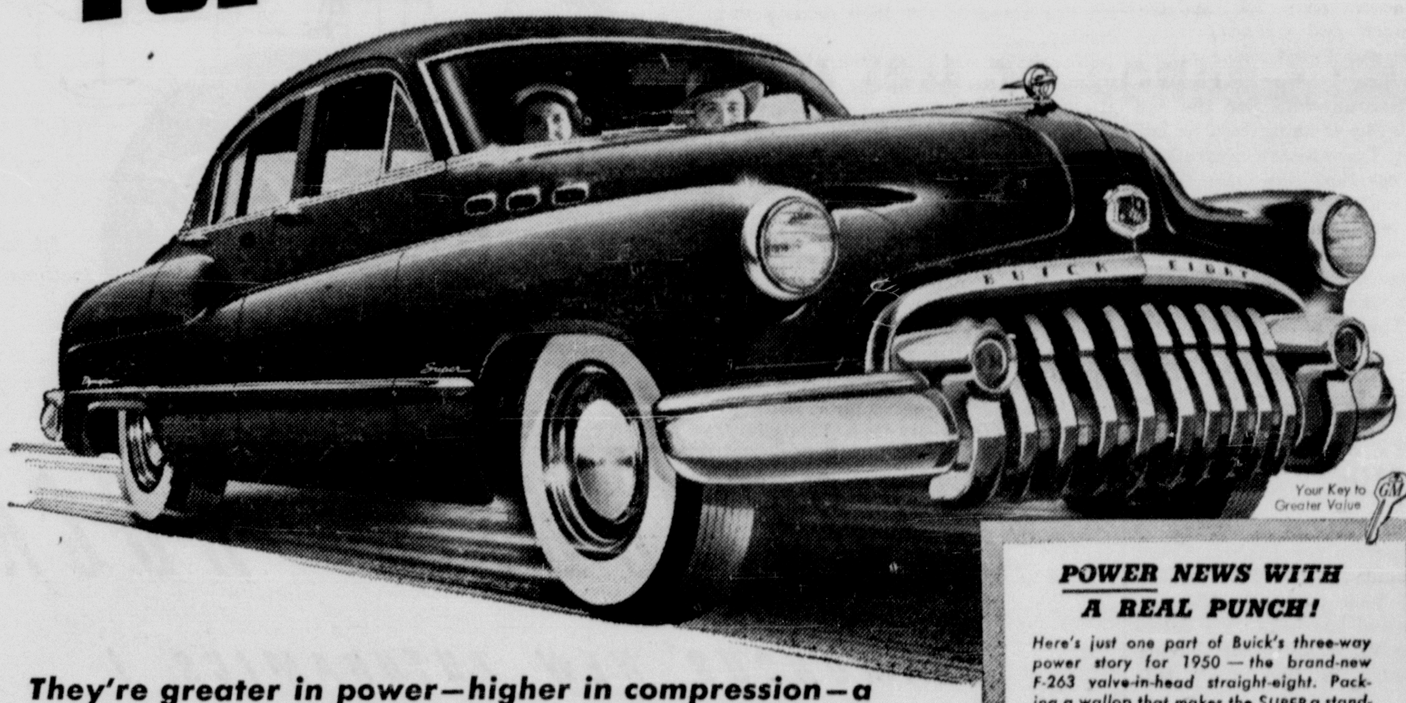
No wonder they're calling them
"TOP CHOICE FOR 'FIFTY"



They're greater in power—higher in compression—a standout in styling—dreams to drive—and now there's a Buick beauty for 1950 to fit practically any budget

No, we just couldn't hold back the whole big Buick line for 1950.

They're too good-looking—too much fun to drive—too jam-packed with stepped-up, higher-compression, ready-to-ramble power—to be kept under cover.

So maybe you've already seen some 1950 Buicks on the highway.

Maybe you've noticed the extra "git up and travel" they have—glimpsed the wide, curving windshields (one piece in most models)—noted, approvingly, that the typical Buick taper is now found in all Buick fenders.

Maybe you've even heard some things...

That there are more than a dozen-and-a-half models to choose from. That there are three power plants in the Buick line—all of higher compression, all stepped up in power.

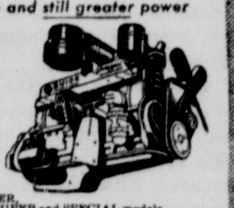
That all models are big and roomy inside—some rear seats are better than a foot wider than before!—yet in every instance, shorter over-all, so easier to handle, park and garage.

Above all, maybe you've heard of exciting news on price...

That Dynaflow Drive, for instance—standard on ROADMASTER models, optional on all others—now costs 20% less than on 1949 models.

POWER NEWS WITH A REAL PUNCH!

Here's just one part of Buick's three-way power story for 1950—the brand-new F-263 valve-in-head straight-eight. Packing a wallop that makes the SUPER a standout performer of the season, here is still higher compression and still greater power in no greater over-all size. You'll get this new engine on all SUPER models, in 124 hp with Synchro-Mesh transmission, 128 hp with Dynaflow Drive.*



*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

That in the full line—SPECIAL, SUPER and ROADMASTER series—there is a Buick to fit practically every budget above the very lowest!

Hadn't you better see him—right now—and see if you, too, don't find Buick "top choice for 1950"?

LOTS OF LUGGAGE SPACE, plus a high-fashion rear-end treatment, graces the Buick tourback Sedan models for 1950. This is the ROADMASTER, and above is the SUPER version of this much-wanted 4-door, 6-passenger Sedan.

TOUGHER POLICY IN FAR EAST IS SEEN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29 — The United States is dispatching the 27,000-ton aircraft carrier Boxer and two destroyers to strengthen the Seventh Task Fleet in Asiatic waters.

The Navy announced this action late today following a White House meeting of the National Security Council where President Truman and his top policy advisers reportedly reached the point of decision on stop-Communism measures throughout the Far East.

The decision to strengthen the Asiatic force—the American fleet which operates nearest Communist China—was made Dec. 6, the Navy said, but there was speculation that it may have been reviewed and reaffirmed at the White House this afternoon. Navy Secretary Matthews attended the council meeting along with Secretary of State Acheson and other high Administration officials.

The State Department, meanwhile, disclosed another dramatic new development in the Far Eastern Communist situation.

It reported word from the Chinese Nationalists that they have completely mined the approaches to Shanghai, Communist China's greatest port. The department immediately sent out warnings to all American ship masters.

The Navy announcement on the assignment of the aircraft carrier said that the Seventh Task Fleet "constitutes a mobile force readily available to support U. S. national policy and to serve as a stabilizing influence in the Western Pacific."

Cadillac Car Found Near Cross Roads; Marlin Negro Preacher Is Shot To Death

The 1941 Cadillac car in which Rev. J. J. Deckard, negro minister of Marlin, was shot to death, was found at Cross Roads in Milam county Tuesday, 12 miles from the scene of the crime.

Rev. Deckard was shot to death around 8:30 p. m. Tuesday as he sat in the parked car on a side road between Bremond and Calvert.

The negro was killed as he talked with Dottie Lee Johnson, negro woman from Hearne, who fled the car and escaped. She is being held in jail at Franklin. The unknown assailant fled in the car that was later found in Milam county.

Officers investigating the shooting said that indications were Deckard may have been robbed but nothing definite was established. So far as known Thursday no arrests had been made.

1950 MODEL CARS ARE GETTING PUBLIC EYE

Will there be two new cars in every garage in 1950? Well, perhaps not but it looks like there will be at least one shiny new bus parked somewhere within easy reach as Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Public and Junior think of the luxuries of modern transportation.

The year 1949 was the best year in motor car history. Will 1950 top it? Looking at the new models one sees the greatest achievements of the automotive industry. The American flare for gadgets has been indulged to hitherto unknown extent. For instance the new 1950 Chevrolet has automatic gear shift, optional equipment, but by another name.

One thing was lacking and that is low prices. Motor cars are still high and will continue to be high. Leaders in the low priced fields are selling at former high priced car levels, but then we never can go back with labor and production costs so high.

Cameron car dealers were stepping out in the first week of the New Year with the new cars. Already announced are the new Buicks at John Muse Motor Company and a new lower priced job is included.

The new Chevrolet still more modern lines and a consistent gain in new features, will be on display at Grabein Chevrolet Company next Saturday.

Schiller Motor Company has slated the showing of the new 1950 Dodge for Wednesday of this week. They also sell Plymouth.

The show room at Green Motor Company is ready for the first of the 1950 Chryslers and Plymouth cars.

Oldsmobile is out and Mitchan Auto Supply is telling the car hungry people this week about the new Olds.

Late in December Pontiac came out with its most advanced model, the 1950 wonder car and McClain Pontiac Company were hoping for a speed up in output .

The 1950 Ford, perhaps the most eagerly awaited of all cars each year, has already hit the show rooms and in Cameron Hefley-Stedman Motor Company records one of the best receptions ever given a new car.

Cameron got another car agency in 1949 the Crosley and Bill Matyastik has some of the 1950 models on display.

Studebaker got ahead with its 1950 models. They came in the November days to lead the country in what is smart for 1950. The new Studebaker achieves a revolutionary new design.

Hudson came out with a car in the modest priced field, a real competer with other popular priced cars and with Hudson qualities throughout. Horstmann Bros., Hudson dealers, are now showing the new Hudson.

Over at Duncum Motor Company where the DeSota and Plymouth are sold Coleman Duncum was expecting the new 1950's at any time. This pioneer motor house is the home of Plymouth in point of sales and service.

Joe B. Anderson with his Willys-Jeep was right in the vanguard for 1950 and the new cars leave nothing to be desired.

Maysfield Mercantile Company with Kaiser-Frazer was expecting momentarily receipt of word and details on the 1950 cars.

One of the highlights along business row in January will be the showing of the new cars. Yes sir, they are tops in their field and deliveries are going to be better in the New Year.

Holiday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey McElwrath were their daughter, Norma Wilson from Kerrville and their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll McElwrath and son, Jackie from Amarillo.

Albert Darner of Route 1, Burlington is among the patients ill in Newton Memorial Hospital. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Four Escape As Two Cars Crash Dangerous Intersection Here

Four persons narrowly escaped death at the dangerous intersection of East 23rd Street and Jackson Avenue late Wednesday.

Mrs. L. L. Thompson of Port Arthur, sister of Mrs. Ray Thompson of Cameron, and Buddy Thompson, were going north on Jackson in a Windsor Chrysler. Traveling west to enter the paved section of 23rd street were Billy Baggerly and Johnnie Ray Sanders in a Model A Ford.

The Baggerly car without good brakes shot into the intersection and crashed into the Chrysler. Both cars were overturned and badly damaged.

Mrs. Thompson was pinned beneath the steering wheel of her car and had to be taken from the machine through a front window. Aside from shock she was uninjured.

Both Baggerly and Sanders escaped injury. It was almost a half hour before officers arrived. The accident was investigated by Deputy Sheriff Barron.

Mrs. Ella Dobbins of Waco and her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Gilbert and her son, W. A. Jr. of Cornwall, Ont., Canada were guests of Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp for the holidays.

Miss Clara Matula spent the Christmas holidays visiting her sister Mrs. Herman Boedeker in Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCown are spending the week in Cameron with their daughter, Mrs. J. R. Poole.

Mrs. Lottie S. Bigbee and cousin, Mrs. Martha Sheppard have returned to their home here after spending several months visiting relatives in Marlin and Bay Town.

Dodge Announces New Automobiles In 10 Body Types

Dodge dealers will display the new Dodge line of automobiles in their showrooms Wednesday, January 3, announced today by Schiller Motors.

Pictures of the new models and specifications were released today. They are longer and lower in appearance as a result of styling modifications. Rear fenders are larger and longer and the rear tread is two inches wider. The rear window area in Coronet and Meadowbrook models is increased one-third. Now parallel bar-type grille, of separate piece construction to minimize repair and replacement cost; new larger bumper guards, new exterior chrome trim, a restyled instrument panel, new dash and cowl insulation and new tail lights are among the improvements.

Available in ten body styles and on two standard wheelbases, the new Dodge cars retain the generous head room, shoulder room, leg room, seat height and wider door openings of preceding models, which established an all-time Dodge high in retail sales.

Fluid Drive is no-extra-cost equipment on all models. Gyro-Matic transmission, which frees the driver from shifting, is available in the Cornet series, at less cost than competitive automatic transmissions. Other chassis features, exclusive in the Dodge price class, include a resistor-protected ignition system, speed proofing of cylinders and Cycle-bond brake linings.

In the Coronet series, Dodge will build six body styles, including an entirely new model, The Diplomat. Seating six, the Diplomat has the low sporty lines of a convertible but with a permanent steel roof. Windows and divider bar crank down out of sight as in a convertible. Other Coronet models include a four-door sedan, club coupe, convertible, eight-passenger sedan and station wagon.

The four-door Coronet station wagon has a new type of rear seat which folds down to form a level floor more than eight feet long. The spare wheel and tire are carried in a well below the floor. The station wagon's four-door design and positioning of seats enables passengers to enter or leave with exceptional ease.

All models are powered by the Dodge "Get-Away engine with a compression ratio of 7 to 1.

Despite their new, longer appearance and wider rear tread, the new Dodge cars are substantially unchanged in their exterior dimensions, thus retaining the "bigger inside, smaller outside" feature of preceding models.

Modifications in the front end, in addition to enhancing appearance, are designed to provide increased protection against costly repairs. Bumper guards are larger and are contoured to resist bumper locking and grille damage. The grille is constructed of chromed, stainless steel members which can be replaced separately. The attractive Dodge medallion is mounted on the center piece of the grille.

With a view to minimizing repair and replacement costs, fenders are bolted, not welded, to the body.

OWLS UNCORK GREATEST COTTON BOWL OFFENSE

DALLAS, Jan. 2—Rice ground power slapped North Carolina, 27-13, in the Cotton Bowl today as the Tar Heels arrived too late with an offense that was sweeping the Texans out of the park at the finish.

For better than three quarters, the massive Rice line battered and bruised the Tar Heels. Tobin Rote unfurled a slingshot arm and sophomore Billy Burkhalter ran North Carolina ragged.

Precision blocking and wizard ball-handling had the Tar Heels on the ropes. But as the shadows lengthened over the big saucer, Charlie Justice, playing his final game of a glamorous four-year career, pulled his Tar Heel mates together for a grand finish that had the crowd of 75,347 screaming.

North Carolina got two touchdowns in eight minutes on the running of battering Billy Hayes and the running and passing of Justice. Until that last period uprising, North Carolina hadn't gotten farther than the Rice 37-yard line.

Burkhalter's driving twisting runs brought two touchdowns, helped set up another and spearheaded a fourth.

The Rice ground game smashed to 226 yards while passing paid off with 152. The 378 yards made by the Owls was one of the most terrific offenses ever to show in the Cotton Bowl. North Carolina made 254 yards—174 of it on the ground.

Hayes was the game's leading ground-gainer with 107 yards while Burkhalter topped the Rice attack with 74. In passing, Rote was in a class by himself. He completed nine out of 17 for 140 yards and two touchdowns. Justice connected on seven in 14 tries for 63 yards and one score.

Sports writers covering the game voted James (Froggie) Williams, Rice's All-America end, the top lineman of the game. Williams caught four passes for 55 yards, one for a touchdown. He also turned in a marvelous blocking and defensive game.

Rice's victory today kept the Owls unbeaten in bowl games and they have played in three in the past 12 years. North Carolina, on the other hand, stayed winless in bowl play. The Tar Heels have been in three of the post-season classics in four years and lost them all.

Rice got two touchdowns so quick in the second period it made the Tar Heels' heads swim. The first was on a 58-yard drive in which Burkhalter, Gordon Wyatt and Bobby Lantrip hammered and gouged the North Carolina line to the Tar Heel 40. Rote passed to Wyatt on the 27, but a penalty for illegal use of the hands set Rice back.

However, Rote calmly passed to Burkhalter on the 39 and he ran to a touchdown behind three Rice blockers. Williams planted the ball between the goal posts.

As soon as Rice got the ball again it scored, this time on a 50-yard march. A 15-yard dash by Burkhalter that put the ball on the seven-yard line set up the touchdown. Rex Proctor hammered tackle for three then Lantrip in two blasts crashed over. Williams again kicked the extra point.

The closest the Tar Heels could get to the Rice goal line in the first half was the Owl 38 with Justice and Hayes spearing the drive.

Rice whammed 77 yards in a relentless and brutish surge midway of the third period for its next touchdown. Burkhalter and Lantrip battered the Tar Heel line and Rote tossed two passes, the last one going to Williams on the North Carolina 12. The All-American wingman twisted and scooted like a halfback as he slashed over for the score. Then he kicked his third extra point of the day.

Rice missed another touchdown shortly aftedward when Wyatt drove across the North Carolina goal line from the two-yard mark and fumbled with Bud Carson recovering for the Tar Heels.

Proctor bobbed up to intercept a long Hayes pass on the North Carolina 40-yard line to set up the final Rice touchdown.

Proctor lateraled to Harold Riley and the speedy Rice back rocked to the Tar Heel 15. Wyatt got three at the line then Burkhalter took a pitch-out from Vernon Glass and circled left end for the score. Williams missed the conversion on this one.

North Carolina then came to life with a bang, raking the Rice line with the runs of Hayes, Justice and Paul Rizo. The latter made both of the Tar Heel touchdowns, climaxing a 65-yard drive by taking a pass for six yards and the first score, then grabbing a lateral from Justice and going eight yards for the other, this touchdown ending an 80-yard surge.

Only 47 seconds remained in the game as Rizzo dashed over the final Tar Heel score. Egbert Williams kicked the extra point after the second score, missed the first one.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Walker of Milano are the happy parents of a baby son born December 27, 1949 at St. Edwards Hospital. The baby has been named James David.

NOW IS THE TIME TO:

Seed your future the one sure way!

THERE'S one sure way to grow your profits into opportunity. That safe, sure way is to invest your dollars in U. S. Savings Bonds. Then see how fast wishes become certainties!

With a nest-egg of Savings Bonds, you'll find you can do the things you've always planned—like buying new equipment for your farm or home—educating your children—taking long vacation trips, or retiring from work.

Your United States Savings Bonds, the one crop that never fails, will make your dreams become realities. In ten short years, they will yield $4 for every $3 you invest. They spell real security at a handsome profit.

Dean W. I. Myers of Cornell University, says: "A financial reserve in United States Savings Bonds is just as important a part of a well-managed farm or ranch business as is land, livestock, buildings, and machinery. Agriculture is a highly speculative business at the very best, and farm and ranch people need to have their financial reserves in the safest possible form and where they will always be readily available. Nothing meets these two requirements so well as United States Savings Bonds."

OUTLOOK BRIGHT AS 1950 MAKES DEBUT

Cameron folks have a habit of facing the New Year with calm determination and wiothout fanfare or celebration.

True many are planning to greet the dawn of 1950 and to bid farewell to the Old Year that has brought prosperity, much for which to be thankful and a minimum of disappointments. On the whole 1949 was the best post war year we have had.

Business was optimistic as the New Year approached and full speed ahead was gauge of acceleration as plans were made and strongly on the side of progress was optimism. Folks here have caught the spirit of the nation as a whole. There was no thought of retrenchment and there was no fear of the future.

Buying power was high and business had closed out the biggest December in history.

Aside from disappointment over acreage allotments that will materially affect cotton production the farm outlook was rosy. Already many farmers were accepting the cut and making plans to utilize their spare acres for other important crops that will fit well into the agricultural economy of the county.

Livestock has become a major source of income for the county. Cotton has been in the background, although still the largest single factor in crops.

Many entertainments were on the calendar for New Year's Eve and there will be happy times as much so as there will be Happy Days in 1950. Cameron was confident, eager and ready to play its role in the march of the months ahead.

A CABBAGE GROWS

A cabbage started putting out growth in the Katie Green, colored, grocery last week and from the stem cut off when harvested an entirely new cabbage was forming. The freak growth was brought to this newspaper last week by Albert Brown. The cabbage head had not been in the soil since harvested. Even the atmosphere in the magic soil belt achieves miracles.

Milam and Falls Co. Ask Farm To Market Road Funds Thursday

AUSTIN, Dec. 29—Last minute appeals for farm roads to be built jointly by county and state went before the state highway commission today.

The plan under which counties pay 75 percent and the state 25 percent of construction costs and the state provides maintenance ends Jan. 1.

Delegations at a public hearing today sought to get projects "under the wire" for Zavala, Cherokee, Howard and Milam counties.

Delegations from other counties also asked consideration to other road projects, both farm and primary.

The commission promised to study all the requests but made no actual commitments.

Requests included the following, by counties:

Falls—County Judge Fred B. Glass and delegation asked emergency consideration of farm road from state Highway 320 in Westphalia to state Highway 53 east of Barclay to serve 60 to 70 families including 39 school children.

Milam—County Judge Dan Tyson of Cameron and delegation asked a study of the county's road program for possible inclusion of additional projects under the 75-25 plan.

MESSAGE WEDNESDAY TO START FIREWORKS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1—Congress prepared today for one of the hottest political sessions in modern history.

Congressional veterans expect such politically hot issues as civil rights, Government spending and taxes to dominate the election year session which convenes Tuesday.

President Truman will set it off with his State of the Union message to a joint session Wednesday, renewing his demand for a wide range of "fair deal" measures.

Along with the budget and economic messages to come a few days later the stage will be set for at least six months of political wrangling aimed at the November Congressional elections.

Administrative lieutenants frankly admit there is no chance for some of the Truman demands, but they will be made, nevertheless, to establish them as campaign issues.

Among them are repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor Law, enactment of a compulsory health insurance program, the Brannan farm plan and the Fair Employment Practices Commission, the most controversial of his civil rights proposal.

With the budget expected to total about $43,000,000,000, Republicans intend to make Government spending and taxes their principal issue.

Water Increases As New York Rings In 1950

New York, Jan. 1—New York City's New Year's Eve celebration was almost waterless—as predicted—and city engineers have statistics to prove it.

During the past 24 hours the supply in the city's reservoirs increased 192,000,000 gallons, bringing them to 36.1 per cent of capacity.

Chief Engineer Edward J. Clark said that the improved condition in the three watersheds in actuality represents the "run off" from last week's rain.

In the delegation were Judge Tyson, Commissioners W. W. Markham and T. F. Locklin of Thorndale, County Auditor Conn R. Isaacs, John B. Henderson, Roy Law, Frank Tomek, County Superintendent Charles M. Hicks and Mr. Tomlinson of Salem.

PROTECTS THEM FROM COLDS!

No drafts... no chilly corners... no frigid floors

with Flue-Vented gas heating equipment

COMMON colds strike with such viciousness that 3 out of 5 people will have three or more "colds" this winter. All together over 200 million illnesses!

Many of these colds, particularly childrens', may be avoided by keeping the entire home at uniform temperature with automatic flue-vented gas heating equipment. Sudden changes in temperature, as when children dash from a warm room to a cold room, are eliminated. Chilling drafts are swept away, too.

Only flue-vented gas heating equipment is available with automatic controls. It keeps your home at the ideal temperature without attention. No overheating or underheating, as is commonly experienced with open flame heating equipment.

You never know when a serious, expensive illness may strike—following a cold that might have been avoided. Act now. Investigate the various types of flue-vented gas heating equipment for the health protection of you and your family, today.

Gas Floor Furnaces, Closet-Type Central Furnaces, Gas-Steam Radiators, Vented Circulators and other types of modern Flue-Vented gas heating appliances work three ways to help prevent colds:

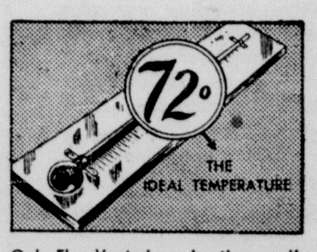
Flue-Vented gas heating appliances have no exposed flame. The air indoors is noticeably fresher because products of combustion are carried off through the vent to the out of doors. Flue-venting eliminates wall and window sweating, as well.

Flue-Vented gas heating appliances work on the principle of positive air circulation. They don't just "throw out" heat. Results: No frigid floors. No chilly corners. No cold feet when Flue-Vented gas heating equipment is installed throughout.



Only Flue-Vented gas heating appliances can be equipped with automatic thermostatic controls. This protects you against common colds and more serious sickness by preventing sudden temperature changes, drafts, chills and overheating.
